Wrenbridge Take on Brothers to Launch Midlands Push

Wrenbridge have announced they have taken on brothers Ben and Tom Spickernell to drive their Midlands business forward. Ben and Tom, formerly at Maximus and Graftongate respectively are due to join this summer and will work out of the existing Wrenbridge office at 32 Ludgate Hill, Birmingham.

Ben Coles, Chief Executive of Wrenbridge comments “Ben and Tom are a great acquisition for Wrenbridge. They are great guys and highly motivated so we cant wait for them to join”.

Coles continues “we aim to make a real impact in the Midlands market and Ben and Tom joining gives us that opportunity”.

“We have bought two assets for £6.7m in the past month in the South Midlands (Bicester and Abingdon) and have just exchanged to do a deal with Worcester University for a new 10 year Joint Venture. We are bidding and close to a further two deals in the Midlands before the summer so they are lucky enough to join at an active time”.

Ben Spickernell comments: “we are really excited by the new push we are planning in the Midlands for Wrenbridge and delighted to be leading it. We join Wrenbridge on the 4 July ready for a busy 6 months of buying to follow”.
